- Saw Spiderman Far From Home. Light fare, very entertaining. Treatment of Mysterio surprisingly good. Worth full price.

- Attended the Miss Fisher Mysteries Convention. Fun con. Stuff about the cars and clothes. Missed masquerade, but heard it was nice. Fun time. 120 attendees. It'll be in New England next year.

- Saw Hamilton. Fantastic. Well told (if not playing a little with the history.) Mix of trad-musical with hip-hop and other styles. Will try to get in the lottery to see it again.

- Went to the Wizard of Oz Sing-a-Long at 3Below. Quite fun. Dressed as Auntie Em.

- Costume College in Los Angeles. One of the Miss Fisher costume designers was there! A lot of classes. Very good time, highly recommend.

- Two weekends ago went to Comicon in San Diego. Saw the preview activations (live experiences) for the Expanse, Carnival Row and the Boys. Also saw the Pennyworth activation, which took-over a bar with various experiences (even saw the actor that plays Pennyworth hanging out.) Went to Comic-book Legal Defense Fund party. It's getting to be more experiences outside of the convention (no ticket needed). Managed to stay half a block away from the con (won the hotel lottery!)
