

JAMES E. STEVENSON

154 W. 2170 N #415, PROVO UT 84604.

jes84@email.byu.edu

(801) 371-1761 or (801) 358-2293

Work Experience

IBM (May 2004-Present)

Student Internship

Currently working remotely; projects include Lotus Notes application design, Domino server administration, and audit compliance documentation. Support and development of a Notes application used by approximately 200 people requires strong communication, presentation and prioritization skills

Golden Valley Electric Association (Summer 2001)

Student Internship

Designed a corporate Internet application and database front-end using PERL, CSS, HTML, DHTML, JavaScript, MySQL, and Access

Third Sector Technologies / Information Insights (Summer 1999, 2000)

Student Internship

Implemented Internet-based applications using database and scripting languages, including: PERL, CSS, DHTML, JavaScript, MySQL, and involvement with the open source Slashdot templates

Fairbanks North Star Borough School District (Summer 2000)

Library / Broadcasting Assistant

Managed district-wide broadcasting systems, scheduled outgoing broadcasts, designed the public message board

Academics

Brigham Young University (currently enrolled)

3.85 / 4.0 Cumulative GPA

Expected Graduation April 2006

Computer Science Major

Finalist for the Gordon B. Hinckley Scholarship (top academic scholarship at BYU)

Recipient of the BYU Heritage full-tuition academic scholarship

Recipient of the Alaska Mt. McKinley Bank academic scholarship (one of ten statewide)

ACT Score 33

SAT Score 1420

Volunteer Experience

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Colorado Denver South Mission

Full-time volunteer mission

January 2002-December 2003

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST

