

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
FACULTY OF DIVINITY

THE STANTON LECTURES 2013-14

The Great Riddle: Wittgenstein and Nonsense, Theology and Philosophy

Professor Stephen Mulhall

Professor of Philosophy; University Lecturer and Tutorial Fellow in Philosophy, New College, Oxford University

Lecture Titles:

20 January

1. Nonsense and Theology: Exhausting the Options?

27 January

2. The Flounder and the Fisherman's Wife: Tractarian Ethics, the Mystical and the Religious

3 February

3. Grammatical Thomism: Five Ways of Refusing to Make Sense

17 February

4. Analogical Uses and the Projectiveness of Words: Wittgenstein's Vision of Language

24 February

5. Perfections and Transcendentals: Wittgenstein's Vision of Philosophy

3 March

6. Authority and Revelation: Philosophy and Theology

All lectures will take place on Mondays at 4.00pm in the Runcie Room at the Faculty of Divinity

ALL WELCOME