

PROPOSAL DETAILS

It will be my pleasure to work with you for the claiming of my late client funds at the tune of $18.6M dollars he left behind in our bank where I work as his personal accountant and auditor of the bank after his boat capsized in 2009 western Cape South Africa, as a result of shark attack with his entire family, which has been a major problem in South Africa for the past years. You can view recent history of shark attack from <http://za.news.yahoo.com/africansurfer-survives-shark-attack-182157541.html>

This email is directed to you due to the fact that your email contact and surname matches the ones we have on our late client file, consequently I love to present you as the apparent heir the funds were bequeathed to before my bank, as all legal valid paper/document from various department to administer the deceased estates and succession can be obtainable on your behalf by me if you give me your consent. If therefore you are interested in this project, please send to me, your (1) Your Full Names, (2) occupation (3) telephone & fax number, (4) Address (5) age. In order that we can proceed in the process of the funds legitimate release on your name.

Thank you

Danielson Khupano (Mr)
