Corruption evil spoils all
Leads to shameful moral fall
Makes the plight of poor worse still
Economy at standstill.

Voice stifled by force brute
Many were spectators mute
A few tried and faded away
To get rid of, there's no way.

In modern world even now
Old tools work wonders some how
Clarion call of Anna's fast
Government's slumber is lost

Indifference gets a jolt
As a forceful thunder bolt
Smartly done by Anna again
Not for any personal gain

Anna leads the moral way
Stops government going astray
A joint fight for common good
To prevent raising the hood.

Call for noble social cause
People join without a pause
Youth now treading flawless path
Chemistry wins over math

Sunny days are ahead for sure
It is for all to ensure.
